HAT PERSENTATION AT THE NINTH DISTRICT SCHOOL, YESTERDAY-ITS ORIGIN .-- Two years previous to the formation of the Intermediate Schools, the First District, under the charge of Mr. H. H. Edwards, succeeded in sending the greatest number of pupils to the High School. The following year the Ninth District sent the highest number, whereupon Mr. Edwards presented the Principal of the Ninth District, Mr. Guilford, with one of Dodd's best, with the understanding that the Principal of the Ninth should return the compliment to the Principal of any District that should, the next year, send th :reatest number to the Intermediate Schools in oportion to the number in daily attendance in the District, and he, in turn, should present one of the like to his successful competitor. This year the Secund District became entitled to the hat, and so, to carry out the custom established by Mr. Edwards, the teachers and trustees of the Second District were invited to meet those of the Ninth to witness the presentation. After closing the schools yesterday afternoon, the teachers and trustees met Mr. Guilford, presented the hat to Mr. Reynolds, accompanied by a short speech, which was responded to by the recipient, after which they all endeavored to do ample justice to a load of splendid melons and cake.

MARBIAGES BY NON-RESIDENT CLERGYMEN. It is a matter of frequent occurrence that clargymen and magistrates from Ohio marry residents of this State within the jurisdiction of the same. We do not refer to disputed claims to low-water mark, but they frequently perform the ceremomes at the residences of the parties. This was he case a short time ago, a certain clergyman from Cincinnati having officiated in celebrating a marriage in our town. The laws of Kentucky require such ministers of the gospel as are permitted by their respective churches to solemnize marriages, to have a licence from the proper authorities of the county in which they reside, and a penalty is imposed upon the person violating the provisions of the law. Of course an Ohio minister can not get license from any court in Kentucky, for the reason he is a non-resident. Not only is there a penalty affixed, but all such marriages are believed, by the best jurists in the State, to be void. A little attention to this matter might save much trouble, and possibly criminal prosecutions.
